Ancillary service provider

A person who is licensed by the CBB in relation to the carrying on of one or more ancillary services, such as providing compliance services, data-processing services, or a local service or management office, with respect to other CBB licensees. Such persons are separately licensed and subject to the requirements contained in the relevant CBB’s ‘Standard Conditions and Licensing Criteria’.

Approved persons

As defined in HC-2.1.

Articles of association

Legal document establishing a corporation, outlining its structure and purpose.

Asset revaluation reserves

An asset revaluation reserve is an accounting concept and represents a reassessment of the value of a capital asset as at a particular date.

Associate(d)

A company or other enterprise, which is not a subsidiary or joint venture, over which the bank licensee has significant influence. Significant influence means the power to participate in financial and operating policy decisions. Such influence is presumed to exist if the bank licensee owns more than 20 percent of the associate.

Auditor

The firm/partnership charged with carrying out the audit of a licensee and its partners, directors and managers (see Module AU).

Authorised Money Transferor

Any Bank or other licensee (such as a money changer) specifically authorised to effect money transfers.

B

Bahraini Islamic bank licensee(s)

As defined in LR-A.1.6.

Basel Capital Accord

Issued initially in July 1988 by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision, the Basel Capital Adequacy Accord is a risk based capital adequacy methodology that defines the components of capital and applies a series of risk weights and capital charges to banks' assets and holdings of financial instruments. The Accord aims to increase the stability of the international financial system through having a single internationally acknowledged measurement of a bank's capital expressed as a percentage of its financial risks. It also serves to put internationally active banks on an equal competitive footing in respect of the measurement of their capital adequacy.

Basel Committee

The Basel Committee, founded in 1974, is made up of representatives of the central banks and banking supervisory authorities of the Group of Ten (G-10) countries plus Luxembourg and Spain. The resolutions and recommendations of the Basel Committee are accepted as the basis of banking supervision methodology in more than 130 countries. They are not binding, however, as the Committee does not exercise a supranational banking supervisory function.

Branch

A place of business which forms a legally dependent part of a bank and which carries out directly all or some of the transactions inherent in the business of the relevant bank. Islamic bank licensees operating as a branch are called overseas conventional bank licensees for the purposes of Volume 1 (see LR-A.1.8).

Capital adequacy

A measure of the financial strength of a bank or securities firm, usually expressed as a percentage ratio of its capital to its assets.

Capital redemption reserves

Where shares of a company are redeemed or purchased wholly out of the company's profits, or by a fresh issue, the amount by which the company's issued share capital is diminished on cancellation of the shares shall be transferred to this reserve.

Certificate of commercial registration

Certificate issued by the Ministry of Commerce to businesses for carrying out specified activities as legal entities in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Certificate of incorporation

A document granted by the Ministry of Commerce giving an entity its legal existence and right to function as an entity.

Certificates representing certain securities

Certificates or other instruments which confer contractual or property rights:

- (a) in respect of any investment held by someone other than the person on whom the rights are conferred by the certificate or other instrument; and
- (b) the transfer of which may be effected without requiring the consent of that person.

CFT

Combating the financing of terrorism.

Chief Executive

A person responsible under the immediate authority of the Board of Directors for the conduct of the firm (regardless of actual title).

Collateral

Any form of property, security, guarantee or indemnity provided as security for a borrower.

Collective Investment Undertaking

As defined in LR-1.3.37.

Commodity

Raw materials or primary products, usually sold in bulk on an exchange (other than a financial instrument or cash), which are capable of delivery.

Compliance Directorate

The unit within the Central Bank responsible for verifying licensees' compliance with the requirements of the CBB Law, the AML Law, this Module and other CBB Regulations relating to terrorist financing and money laundering, and for collating and monitoring suspicious transaction reports from licensees.

Conflict of interest

A situation when a person or an entity has competing professional or personal obligations to other parties in a financial transaction (e.g. underwriting a securities transaction and simultaneously advising clients whether to buy the security or not) or in ongoing financial relationships (e.g. when a bank has a director or one of its major borrowers on its board), or personal or financial interests that would make it difficult to fulfil his duties fairly.

Constant Musharaka (see Musharaka)

A musharaka in which the partners' shares in the capital remain constant, throughout the period as specified in the contract.

Contingency plans

A plan maintained to ensure the availability of critical resources and to facilitate the continuity of operations in an emergency situation.

Contingent liabilities

In context of liabilities, those liabilities that do not yet appear on the balance sheet (ie. guarantees, supports, lawsuit settlements). For support or recourse, the trigger may occur at any time in the future, and the loss or expenditure is highly uncertain. Once timing and the quantification of expenditure becomes clearer, provisions should be raised in respect of the contingent liability. When the amount or the timing of the contingent item becomes certain, then it ceases to be a contingent item and should be entered into the balance sheet.

Control

(in relation to the acquisition, increase or reduction of control of a bank) the relationship between a person and the bank or other undertaking of which the person is a controller.

Control environment

The control environment means the overall attitude, awareness and actions of directors and management regarding the internal control system and its importance in the entity.

Controlled function

A function carried on by an approved person in relation to an Islamic bank licensee, that requires prior CBB approval: HC-2.

Controller

A Controller is a natural or legal person who:

- a) holds 10% or more of the shares in the licensee ("L"), or is able to exercise (or control the exercise) of more than 10% of the voting power in L; or
- b) holds 10% or more of the shares in a parent undertaking ("P") of L, or is able to exercise (or control the exercise) of more than 10% of the voting power in P; or
- c) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of L or P.

Correspondent Bank

A bank which offers another bank (the respondent bank) an account through which the respondent bank may make payments for its own account and that of its clients. In brief, the correspondent bank acts as agent for the respondent bank. Correspondent relationships do not include transactions between banks as principals (e.g. in the wholesale market).

Counterparty

A counterparty is the other person in a contract. Therefore, if bank A buys a security issued by company B from broker C, bank A has counterparty risk to broker C and Issuer Risk in respect of company B. A counterparty may include any legal person or arrangement, but generally would mean the following:

- (a) any individual; or
- (b) any unincorporated body of persons; or
- (c) any company which is not a member of a group; or
- (d) any group of companies; or
- (e) any government of a State or any public bodies, local authorities or nationalised industries of a State.

Custody

In relation to clients' assets, this refers to the safeguarding and administering of a client's investments.

Customer

A customer is:

Groups or individuals who have a business relationship with the organization--those who receive and use or are directly affected by the products and services of the organization.

Islamic bank licensee

A bank licensed by CBB under Volume 2 of the CBB Rulebook, and generally operating according to Islamic finance principals (as opposed to operating in accordance with conventional finance principles).

Islamic Wholesale banks

Islamic Wholesale banks are defined as banks who undertake (at a minimum) the regulated Islamic banking services of accepting Shari'a money placements/deposits, and/or managing Shari'a profit sharing investment accounts, together with the activity of offering Shari'a financing contracts, subject to the restrictions on dealings with residents of Bahrain and/or in Bahraini Dinars, as defined in Rules LR-1.2.9 to 1.2.24.

Issued share capital

Total amount of shares that have been issued.

Istisna'a

A contract whereby the purchaser (al-mustasni') asks the seller (al-sani') to manufacture a specifically defined product (al-masnoo') using the seller's raw materials at a given price. The contractual agreement of istisna'a has a characteristic similar to that of Salam in that it provides for the sale of a product not available at the time of sale. It also has a characteristic similar to the ordinary sale in that the price may be paid on credit; however, unlike Salam, the price in the istisna'a contract is not paid when the deal is concluded. A third characteristic of the contractual agreement of istisna'a is similar to Ijarah (employment) in that labour is required in both.

J

Joint accounts

An agreement between two or more firms to share risk and financing responsibility in purchasing or underwriting securities, or an account owned jointly by two or more persons at a bank or brokerage house.

Licensees

Money Laundering

Means the activity constituting a criminal offence pursuant to Article 2 of the AML Decree Law No. 4 dated 29th January 2001 (see Appendix FC 1). More generally, money laundering refers to the process of hiding or disguising the true origin or ownership of the proceeds of criminal activities.

Money-market instruments

Those classes of instruments which are normally dealt in on the money market.

Mudaraba

A partnership in profit between capital and work. It may be conducted between investment account holders as providers of funds and the Islamic bank as a mudarib. The Islamic bank announces its willingness to accept the funds of investment amount holders, the sharing of profits being as agreed between the two parties, and the losses being borne by the provider of funds except if they were due to misconduct, negligence or violation of the conditions agreed upon by the Islamic bank. In the latter cases, such losses would be borne by the Islamic bank. A Mudaraba contract may also be concluded between the Islamic bank, as a provider of funds, on behalf of itself or on behalf of investment account holders, and business owners and other craftsmen, including farmers, traders etc. Mudaraba differs from what is known as speculation which includes an element of gambling in buying and selling transactions.

Mudaraba (Muqaradah) sukuk (bonds)

These are investment sukuk that represent ownership of units of equal value in the Mudaraba equity and are registered in the names of holders on the basis of undivided ownership of shares in the Mudaraba equity and its returns according to the percentage of ownership of share. The owners of such sukuk are the rabbul-mal.

Murabaha

Sale of goods with an agreed upon profit mark up on the cost. Murabaha sale is of two types. In the first type, the Islamic bank purchases the goods and makes them available for sale without any prior promise from a customer to purchase them. In the second type, the Islamic bank purchases the goods ordered by a customer from a third party and then sells these goods to the same customer. In the latter case, the Islamic bank purchases the goods only after a customer has made a promise to purchase them from the bank.

Musharaka

A form of partnership between the Islamic bank and its clients whereby each party contributes to the capital of partnership in equal or varying degrees to establish a new project or share in an existing one, and whereby each of the parties becomes an owner of the capital on a permanent or declining basis and shall have his due share of profits. However, losses are shared in proportion to the contributed capital. It is not permissible to stipulate otherwise.

Musharaka sukuk

These are investment sukuk that represent ownership of Musharaka equity. It does not differ from the Mudaraba sukuk except in the organization of the relationship between the party issuing such sukuk and holders of these sukuk, whereby the party issuing sukuk forms a committee from the holders of the sukuk who can be referred to in investment decisions.

N

Name financing

Financing on the basis of personal relationships rather than financial fundamentals

O

Offering Shari'a Financing Contracts

Entering into, or making arrangement for another person to enter into, a contract to provide finance in accordance with Shari'a principles, such as murabaha, bay muajjal, bay salam, ijara wa iktina and istisna'a contracts.

Off-site ATM

Automated Teller Machine. An unattended electronic machine in a public place (other than the premises of the owning bank), connected to a data system and related equipment and activated by a bank customer to obtain cash withdrawals and other banking services.

Operating a Shari'a compliant collective investment undertaking

Operating a Shari'a compliant collective investment undertaking means operating, establishing or winding up a Shari'a compliant CIU.

Operating Ijarah (see Ijarah)

Ijarah contracts that do not end up with the transfer of ownership of leased assets to the lessee.

Outsourcing

The use of a person to provide customised services to a licensee other than (a) a member of a licensee's board acting in his capacity as such (b) an individual employed by a licensee under a contract of service or (c) a licensed insurance manager providing services to a captive insurance firm.

Outsourcing Provider

The person providing the customised services as described in the definition of "outsourcing"

Overseas Islamic bank licensees

Islamic bank licensees that are incorporated in an overseas jurisdiction and operate via a branch presence in the Kingdom of Bahrain (see LR-A.1.8).

Over the counter (OTC)

A decentralised market (as opposed to an exchange market) where geographically dispersed dealers are linked by telephones and computer screens. OTC trades are more often than not denominated in non-standard amounts and on non-standard terms (e.g. maturity outside IMM dates). The term may also refer to trading in securities not listed on a stock or bond exchange.

P

Parallel Salam (see Salam)

A Salam contract whereby al-muslam ileibi depends, for executing his obligation, on receiving what is due to him – in his capacity as al-muslam – from a sale in a previous Salam contract, without making the execution of the second Salam contract dependent on the execution of the first one.

Parent Undertaking

An undertaking or individual (“P”), which has the following relationship with another undertaking (“S”):

- (i) P holds (alone or under an agreement with other shareholders) a majority of the voting rights in S;
- (ii) P (alone or in conjunction with its other subsidiary undertakings), has the right to appoint or remove a majority of its board of directors;
- (iii) P has the right to exercise a dominant influence over S, either through provisions contained in S's memorandum or articles, or a control contract; or
- (iv) P is a parent undertaking of a parent undertaking of S.

Participation (see Musharaka)

A Musharaka in which the Islamic bank owns shares or units representing an equity stake in another firm's capital.

Person

Unless the context requires otherwise, a natural or corporate person.

Politically Exposed Persons or ‘PEPs’

As defined in Paragraph FC-1.5.4.

Pooled funds

In investments, the combination of funds for the benefit of a common project, or a group of investors who use their combined influence to manipulate prices.

Price risk

The risk that the value of a security (or a portfolio) will decline in the future.

Profit equalization reserve

Profit equalisation reserve is the amount appropriated by the Islamic bank out of the mudaraba income, before allocating the mudarib share, in order to maintain a certain return level of return on investment for investment account holders and increase owners' equity.

Q

R

Ras-almal (see Salam)

Capital (cost) paid (in cash, kind or benefit) in a Salam contract, i.e. price.

Regulated Islamic banking services

Any of the regulated activities permitted to be undertaken by an Islamic bank licensee (see LR-1.3).

Relevant Authorities

For the purposes of Module FC, relevant authority refers to the authorities listed in Rule FC-5.3.1.

Reporting Accountant

A Reporting Accountant is a person appointed by the CBB under the authority of Article 114 of the CBB Law as an Inspector of the business of a licensee or listed company.

Representative office

A person who is licensed by the CBB to undertake only representative office functions:

- (b) an agreement between a buyer and seller for the purchase of securities, under which the buyer agrees to resell the securities, or equivalent securities, at an agreed date and, usually, at a stated price.

Reputational risk

Reputational risk is the potential that negative publicity regarding an institution's business practices, whether true or not, will cause a decline in the customer base, costly litigation, or revenue reductions.

Resident

This term includes:

- (a) Persons of whatever nationality whose normal place of residence or business is in Bahrain at the relevant time or whose main source of income is earned from Bahrain.
- (b) Persons who have been granted permanent resident permits in Bahrain.
- (c) Corporate and other institutions who have a permanent registered address in Bahrain and/or a commercial registration number including branches or subsidiaries located in Bahrain of overseas registered corporate or other institutions (excluding offshore companies). However, dealings with the offices of such corporations outside Bahrain in respect of non-Bahrain business is permitted.
- (d) Staff of Bahrain Embassies and Consulates living outside Bahrain.
- (e) Agents or Agencies located abroad but acting on behalf of or for the account of Bahrain residents.

Restricted Investment Accounts

With this type of account, the investment account holder imposes certain restrictions as to where, how and for what purpose his funds are to be invested. Further, the Islamic bank may be restricted from commingling its own funds with the restricted investment account funds for purposes of investment. In addition, there may be other restrictions which investment account holders may impose. For example, investment account holders may require the Islamic bank not to invest their funds in instalment sales transactions or without guarantor or collateral or require that the Islamic bank itself should carry out the investment itself rather than through a third party. Restricted participating investment bonds and restricted participating investment units (investment funds) and any other accounts of a similar nature are equivalent to the restricted investment accounts.

Rights or interests in Financial instruments

Rights to or interests in all financial instruments.

S

Safeguarding Shari'a compliant financial instruments

Safeguarding Shari'a compliant financial instruments means the safeguarding and administration of Shari'a compliant financial instruments belonging to another person (see LR-1.3.29 ff).

Salam

Purchase of a commodity for deferred delivery in exchange for immediate payment according to specified conditions or sale of a commodity for deferred delivery in exchange for immediate payment.

Salam or Istisna'a sukuk

These are sukuk that represent a sale of a commodity on the basis of deferred delivery against immediate payment. The deferred commodity is a debt in-kind against the supplier because it refers to a commodity which is accepted based on the description of the seller.

Security

A certificate (or electronic entry in the case of dematerialised securities) which gives the holder title to an investment. The word is used to cover equity or debt instruments..
