Annual License Fee Form (Form ALF)

Form ALF: INSTRUCTIONS

1. Article 180 of the CBB Law sets out the CBB's powers to charge fees. Based on these provisions, the CBB charges an annual license and registration fee ("ALF") to all its licensees and registered persons. Details on how the ALF is calculated for particular license or registration categories are included in each Rulebook Volume: the ALF for Volume 3 licensees and registered entities is specified in Section AU-6.3.
2. Rule AU-6.3.1 specifies that insurance licensees and registered persons must pay the relevant annual licensee to the CBB, in April each year. Rule AU-6.3.11 states that insurance licensees, subject to Paragraph AU-6.3.4, must complete and submit Form ALF (Annual License Fee) to the CBB, no later than 30th April each year, together with the payment due under Rule AU-6.3.1. Payment may be made by cheque drawn on a Bahraini licensed bank or by wire transfer.
3. If payment is made by wire transfer, licensees should contact the Accounts Directorate to get detailed information on how to proceed.
The amount transferred to the CBB should cover the full amount of the licensee fee. Any other charges must be borne by the licensee.
- 4A. Depending on the type of insurance license or registration, the annual fee is either a fixed amount or a percentage of relevant operating expenses. The following fixed amounts apply:
 - (a) For insurance firms, other than captive insurance firms, the annual licensing fee is BD 6,000;
 - (b) For captive insurance firms, the annual licensing fee is BD 1,000;
 - (c) For insurance brokers, that are single person companies, the annual licensing fee is BD 175;
 - (d) For registered actuaries, the annual registration fee is BD 25;
 - (e) For unincorporated individual loss adjusters, the annual registration fee is BD 175; and
 - (f) For incorporated loss adjusters, the annual registration fee is BD 1,200.
- 4B. Paragraph AU-6.3.4 notes that insurance brokers, other than Bahraini single person companies, all insurance consultants and all insurance managers must pay an annual licensing fee based on 0.25% of their relevant operating expenses. To calculate the license fee required, Form ALF must be completed in full by these licensees.
5. Rule AU-6.3.4 sets out the detailed calculations to be applied, for insurance brokers, other than Bahraini single person companies, all insurance consultants and all insurance managers. Licensees are asked to refer to this Paragraph, and to Section AU-6.3 generally, prior to completing this form.
6. The original completed form, together with a cheque or details of the wire transfer for the amount calculated, and where applicable a copy of the latest audited financial statements used in the calculation of the fee and the external auditor's certification letter, should be sent to:
