Accepting Shari'a money placements

The acceptance of sums of money for safe-keeping ('al-wadia') in a Shari'a compliant framework, under which it will be repaid, either on demand or in circumstances agreed by the parties involved, and which is not referable to the giving of security.

Accredited investor(s)

Defined in Rule BC-9.4.6, an accredited investor includes:

- (a) Individuals holding financial assets (either singly or jointly with their spouse) of USD 1,000,000 or more;
- (b) Companies, partnerships, trusts or other commercial undertakings, which have financial assets available for investment of not less than USD 1,000,000; or
- (c) Governments, supranational organisations, central banks or other national monetary authorities, and state organisations whose main activity is to invest in financial instruments (such as state pension funds).

Acquisition(s)

The acquiring by a bank of beneficial or legal ownership of capital instruments issued by another entity. This would not include securities underwriting until the expiry of the underwriting period (where separate arrangements apply elsewhere in Module CM). Acquisition may also be in the form of exercising of rights to take control of capital instruments pledged as collateral. The pledging of capital instruments by a customer to a bank as collateral (e.g. for the purpose of obtaining credit) does not in itself mean that an "acquisition" has taken place. Acquisition also does not include the establishment of new subsidiaries by the bank. Regulatory requirements for the establishment of SPVs and subsidiaries are contained in Chapter CA-5.2.

Administrators

Persons who administer financial instruments and related services such as cash/collateral management. Such persons need to be registered by the CBB (cf. Volume 4, AU-1.3.2).

Affiliate

An affiliate of a bank is defined as a company that controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the bank. Control has the same meaning as when used in IFRS.

Agency based contract for investments

Holders of investment accounts appoint the Islamic bank to invest their funds on the basis of an agency contract in return for a specified fee or a specified fee and share of the profit if the realised profit exceeds a certain level, the latter being an incentive for the Islamic bank to achieve a return higher than expected.

Al-Muslam fihi (see Salam)

The commodity to be delivered in a Salam transaction.

Al-Muslam ileihi (see Salam)

The seller in a Salam transaction.

Al-Muslam (see Salam)

The purchaser in a Salam transaction.

AML

Anti-Money Laundering

Ancillary service provider

A person who is licensed by the CBB in relation to the carrying on of one or more ancillary services, such as providing compliance services, data-processing services, or a local service or management office, with respect to other CBB licensees. Such persons are separately licensed and subject to the requirements contained in the relevant CBB's 'Standard Conditions and Licensing Criteria'.

Appointed expert(s)

A duly qualified individual or firm appointed by the CBB to carry out inspections in accordance with Article 114 of the CBB Law or special investigations of licensees in accordance with Article 121 of the CBB Law. Appointed experts may be appointed in addition to the CBB's own officials. Examples of appointed experts include reporting accountants, lawyers, private investigators, expert witnesses and independent actuaries.

Approved person(s)

Persons undertaking certain functions in relation to CBB licensees require prior CBB approval. These functions (called controlled functions) include board members and those occupying executive positions. The controlled functions regime supplements the licensing regime by ensuring that key persons involved in the running of licensees are fit and proper. Those authorised by the CBB to undertake controlled functions are called approved persons (see Paragraph LR-1A.1.2).

Articles of association

Legal document establishing a corporation, outlining its structure and purpose.

Asset revaluation reserves

An asset revaluation reserve is an accounting concept and represents a reassessment of the value of a capital asset as at a particular date.

Associate(d)

A company or other enterprise, which is not a subsidiary or joint venture, over which the bank licensee has significant influence. Significant influence means the power to participate in financial and operating policy decisions. Such influence is presumed to exist if the bank licensee owns more than 20 percent of the associate.

Auditor

The firm/partnership charged with carrying out the audit of a licensee and its partners, directors and managers (see Module AU).

Authorised Money or Value Transfer Service (MTVS) Provider(s)

Any Bank or other licensee (such as a money changer) specifically authorised to effect money or value transfers.

B

Bahrain domiciled CIU(s)

Bahrain domiciled CIUs are undertakings where:

- (a) The legal form of the CIU is established under the laws of the Kingdom of Bahrain; and
- (b) The CIU documents and contractual agreements are governed by the Laws of the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Bahraini Islamic bank licensee(s)

As defined in LR-A.1.8.

Bahraini Islamic retail bank licensee(s)

An Islamic retail bank licensee that is incorporated in Bahrain (see Paragraph LR-A1.8).

Bahraini Islamic wholesale bank licensee(s)

An Islamic wholesale bank licensee that is incorporated in Bahrain (see Paragraph LR-A1.8).

Bank licensee(s)

A bank licensed by CBB, either under Volume 1 (as a bank operating under conventional finance principles), or under Volume 2 (as a bank operating wholly under Islamic finance principles).

Banking group

A parent bank and all its banking subsidiaries.

Base rate

The rate/cost of credit that underpins lending to bank customers. Credit institutions lend to customers at basis points over base rates. Not to be confused with prime rate which is the rate/cost of credit at which a credit institution will grant a credit facility to its most creditworthy customers.

Basel Capital Accord

Issued initially in July 1988 by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision, the Basel Capital Adequacy Accord is a risk based capital adequacy methodology that defines the components of capital and applies a series of risk weights and capital charges to banks' assets and holdings of financial instruments. The Accord aims to increase the stability of the international financial system through having a single internationally acknowledged measurement of a bank's capital expressed as a percentage of its financial risks. It also serves to put internationally active banks on an equal competitive footing in respect of the measurement of their capital adequacy.

Basel Committee

The Basel Committee was founded in 1974 by the Bank for International Settlements (BIS). It provides a forum for regular cooperation on banking supervisory matters. Its objective is to enhance understanding of key supervisory issues and improve the quality of banking supervision worldwide. It seeks to do so by exchanging information on national supervisory issues, approaches and techniques, with a view to promote common understanding.

Bonds

An instrument creating or acknowledging a present or future indebtedness (i.e. debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, certificates of deposit and any other instruments creating or acknowledging a present or future indebtedness), but excluding:

- (a) An instrument creating or acknowledging indebtedness for, or for money borrowed to defray, the consideration payable under a contract for the supply of goods and services;
- (b) A cheque or other bill of exchange, a bankers draft or a letter of credit (but not a bill of exchange accepted by a banker);
- (c) A banknote, a statement showing a balance on a bank account, or a lease or other disposition of property; and
- (d) A contract of insurance.

Branch

A place of business which forms a legally dependent part of a bank and which carries out directly all or some of the transactions inherent in the business of the relevant bank. Islamic bank licensees operating as a branch are called overseas conventional bank licensees for the purposes of Volume 1 (see LR-A.1.8).

Capital adequacy

A measure of the financial strength of a bank or securities firm, usually expressed as a percentage ratio of its capital to its assets.

Capital instrument(s)

This includes all components of equity capital including ordinary equity, both voting and non-voting, and preference shares. It also includes convertible or hybrid financial instruments which are debt – like in character and which may be converted into equity. Also for financial institutions and insurance companies, any other financial instruments (such as subordinated debt) which are eligible as regulatory capital should also be included as capital instruments. Sukuk or senior debt instruments would not normally be regarded as “capital instruments” unless they have convertibility features. Equity-like contracts such as joint venture musharaka contracts (investments but not financing) are also included in this definition. The musharaka stake is classified as a capital instrument at onset. Shari’a compliant investment notes would be considered capital instruments if convertibility option/clause is available.

Capital redemption reserves

Where shares of a company are redeemed or purchased wholly out of the company’s profits, or by a fresh issue, the amount by which the company’s issued share capital is diminished on cancellation of the shares shall be transferred to this reserve.

Certificate of commercial registration

Certificate issued by the Ministry of Commerce to businesses for carrying out specified activities as legal entities in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Certificate of incorporation

A document granted by the Ministry of Commerce giving an entity its legal existence and right to function as an entity.

Certificates representing certain securities

Certificates or other instruments which confer contractual or property rights:

- (a) In respect of any investment held by someone other than the person on whom the rights are conferred by the certificate or other instrument; and
- (b) The transfer of which may be effected without requiring the consent of that person.

CFT

Combating the financing of terrorism.

Chief Executive, Chief Executive Officer or CEO

Chief executive, chief executive officer or CEO. The board shall determine that person’s actual title, which may be ‘CEO’, ‘Chief Executive Officer’, ‘President’, ‘Managing Director’, or another title.

Clawback

A clawback requires that an employee (or ex-employee) return to the bank the variable remuneration that was previously paid out to him/her.

Close links

A bank is defined as “closely linked” with:

- (a) Any person/entity which qualifies as a “controller” of the concerned bank as defined in Module GR-5 of the Rulebook;
- (b) Any entity which is a subsidiary of the bank;
- (c) Any entity which is an associate company of the bank.

Collateral

Any form of property, security, guarantee or indemnity provided as security for a borrower.

Collective Investment Undertaking

As defined in LR-1.3.34.

Commodity(ies)

Raw materials or primary products, usually sold in bulk on an exchange (other than a financial instrument or cash), which are capable of delivery.

Compliance Directorate

The unit within the Central Bank responsible for verifying licensees’ compliance with the requirements of the CBB Law, the AML Law, this Module and other CBB Regulations relating to terrorist financing and money laundering, and for collating and monitoring suspicious transaction reports from licensees.

Conflict of interest

A situation when a person or an entity has competing professional or personal obligations to other parties in a financial transaction (e.g. underwriting a securities transaction and simultaneously advising clients whether to buy the security or not) or in ongoing financial relationships (e.g. when a bank has a director of one of its major borrowers on its board), or personal or financial interests that would make it difficult to fulfil his duties fairly.

Connected person(s)

- (a) The individual’s spouse and his/her son, adopted son, stepson, daughter, adopted daughter, step-daughter, father, step-father, mother, step-mother, brother, step-brother, sister or step-sister, under his/her guardianship or control; or
- (b) A firm or corporation in which the individual or any persons mentioned in (a) has control of not less than 10% of the voting power in the firm or corporation, whether such control is exercised individually or jointly; or
- (c) Connected persons in relation to a firm or corporation means another firm or corporation in which the first-mentioned firm or corporation has control of not less than 10% of the voting power in that other firm or corporation.

Conspicuous notice

Means a written statement in both Arabic and English languages which is easily visible and legible and displayed in all credit institutions' premises open to the public, such as websites, newspapers and other press notices.

Constant Musharaka (see Musharaka)

A musharaka in which the partners' shares in the capital remain constant, throughout the period as specified in the contract.

Contingency plans

A plan maintained to ensure the availability of critical resources and to facilitate the continuity of operations in an emergency situation.

Contingent liabilities

In context of liabilities, those liabilities that do not yet appear on the balance sheet (ie. guarantees, supports, lawsuit settlements). For support or recourse, the trigger may occur at any time in the future, and the loss or expenditure is highly uncertain. Once timing and the quantification of expenditure becomes clearer, provisions should be raised in respect of the contingent liability. When the amount or the timing of the contingent item becomes certain, then it ceases to be a contingent item and should be entered into the balance sheet.

Control

Has the same meaning as when used in IFRS.

Control environment

The control environment means the overall attitude, awareness and actions of directors and management regarding the internal control system and its importance in the entity.

Controlled function(s)

Functions of board members and those persons undertaking executive positions at CBB Islamic bank licensees (see LR-1A.1.2).

Controller

A controller is a natural or legal person who either alone, or with his associates:

- (a) Holds 10% or more of the shares in the licensee ("L"), or is able to exercise (or control the exercise) of 10% or more of the voting power in L; or
- (b) Holds 10% or more of the shares in a parent undertaking ("P") of L, or is able to exercise (or control the exercise) of 10% or more of the voting power in P; or
- (c) Is able to exercise significant influence over the management of L or P.

Conventional bank licensee(s)

A bank licensed by CBB under Volume 1 of the CBB Rulebook, and generally operating according to conventional finance principles (as opposed to operating in accordance with Islamic finance principles).

Correspondent Bank

A bank which offers another bank (the respondent bank) an account through which the respondent bank may make payments for its own account and that of its clients. In brief, the correspondent bank acts as agent for the respondent bank. Correspondent relationships do not include transactions between banks as principals (e.g. in the wholesale market).

Counterparty

A counterparty is the other person in a contract. Therefore, if bank A buys a security issued by company B from broker C, bank A has counterparty risk to broker C and Issuer Risk in respect of company B. A counterparty may include any legal person or arrangement, but generally would mean the following:

- (a) Any individual;
- (b) Any unincorporated body of persons;
- (c) Any company which is not a member of a group;
- (d) Any group of companies; or
- (e) Any government of a State or any public bodies, local authorities or nationalised industries of a State.

Credit risk

Is defined as the potential that a bank's borrower or counterparty will fail to meet its obligations in accordance with agreed terms. Credit risk exists throughout the activities of a bank in the banking book and in the trading book and includes on- and off-balance sheet exposures.

Diminishing Musharaka (see Musharaka)

A musharaka in which the Islamic bank agrees to transfer gradually to the other partner its (the Islamic bank's) share in the musharaka, so that the Islamic bank's share declines and the other partner's share increases until the latter becomes the sole proprietor of the venture.

Director

A person who acts in the capacity of director of a firm (whether appointed or not, or whether titled director or not). In the case of a sole trader, unincorporated body or partnership, a person directing its affairs, or a partner (of a partnership). Directors are a controlled function (cf. LR-1A.1.2).

Disabled customer(s)

For the purpose of Module BC 'disabled' means: all those who suffer from permanent total or partial physical or sensory impairments as a result of illness, accident, congenital or hereditary factor that may prevent them from accessing banking and financial services on an equal basis with others. These are the customers who have the ability to make their own decisions but need assistance to do so, due to their circumstances. The term 'disabled' includes visual impairments and hearing impairments and physical impairments.

People who have limited ability to take their own decisions (mental impairment) do not fall within this definition.

Electronic banking

Electronic banking or ‘e-banking’ refers to the provision of retail and small value banking products and services through electronic channels. Such products and services can include deposit-taking, lending, account management, the provision of financial advice, electronic bill payment, and the provision of other electronic payment products and services such as electronic money.

- (c) Accepted as a means of payment by persons other than the issuer.

Eligible Account(s)

Means any Deposit Account (being a deposit in accordance with the Central Bank of Bahrain Resolution No. (23) of 2009 in respect of Definition of Deposit) and Unrestricted Investment Account, and any other deposits or accounts similar in nature and which have similar characteristics which are approved by the CBB, regardless of currency, with the exception of bearer certificates of deposit.

Eligible account holder(s)

Means eligible depositor and/or investor that is a natural person (resident or non-resident), holding an eligible account(s) with an Islamic retail bank in the Kingdom. It does not include deposits and unrestricted investment accounts held with an Islamic retail bank’s foreign branches operating outside the Kingdom.

Executive director

Means a director who is an officer or employee, or is otherwise involved in day-to-day management, of either:

- (a) The bank;
- (b) Another company which is a controller of the bank;
- (c) Another company of which the bank is a controller; or
- (d) Another company which is controlled by a controller of the bank.

In this definition, the word “company” which is a controller of the bank excludes sovereigns such as government owned entities and government ministries.

Exposure(s)

The components of an “Exposure” are outlined in more detail in Module CM-4.2. In summary, an exposure is the maximum loss which the firm might suffer if:

- (a) A counterparty or a group of connected counterparties fail to meet their obligations; or
- (b) It realises assets or off-balance sheet positions.

F

Hybrid instruments

A package of two or more different kinds of risk management instruments that are usually interactive.

Ijarah

The transfer of ownership of a service for an agreed upon consideration. According to fuqaha, it has three major elements: a form, which includes an offer and a consent; two parties (a lessor (the owner of the leased asset), and a lessee (the party who reaps the services of the leased asset)); and the object of the (Ijarah) contract, which includes the rental amount and the service (transferred to the lessee).

Ijarah Muntahia Bittamleek (see also Ijarah term)

Ijarah contracts that end up with the transfer of ownership of leased assets to the lessee.

Ijarah sukuk

Sukuks that represent ownership of equal shares in a rented real estate or the usufruct of the real estate. These sukuk give their owners the right to own the real estate, receive the rent and dispose of their sukuk in a manner that does not affect the right of the lessee, i.e. they are tradable. The holders of such sukuk bear all cost of maintenance of and damage to the real estate.

Independent director

Determination by the Board. Under Module HC an ‘independent director’ is a director whom the board has specifically determined has no material relationship which could affect his independence of judgment, taking into account all known facts. The board should consider that, although a particular director meets the formal requirements, he may not be independent owing to specific circumstances of the person or the bank, ownership structure of the bank, or for any other reason. The board’s determination should be a good faith finding after diligent review and full discussion.

Formal Requirements. ‘Independent director’ means a non-executive director of the bank who, or whose family shareholders either separately or together with him or each other, does not have any material pecuniary relationships or transactions with the bank (not counting director’s remuneration for this purpose) and in particular who, during the one year preceding the time in question met all the following conditions:

- (a) Was not an employee of the company;
- (b) Did not:
 - (i) Make to, or receive from, the bank payments of more than 31,000 BD or equivalent (not counting director’s remuneration);
 - (ii) Own more than a 10% share or other ownership interest, directly or indirectly, in an entity that made to or received from the bank payments of more than such amount;
 - (iii) Act as a general partner, manager, director or officer of a partnership or company that made to or received from the bank payments of more than such amount;

- (iv) Have any significant contractual or business relationship with the bank which could be seen to materially interfere with the person's capacity to act in an independent manner,
- (c) Did not own directly or indirectly (including for this purpose ownership by any family member or related person) 5% or more of the shares of any type or class of the bank;
- (d) Was not engaged directly or indirectly as an auditor or professional advisor for the bank, and
- (e) Was not an associate of a Director or a member of senior management of the bank.

For purposes of this definition, the 'payments' referred to in paragraph (b)(i), (b)(ii) and (b)(iii) do not include monies received from dividends, deposits, investments and credit facilities arising from the bank's normal business activities, but instead ordinarily refer to monies received (and/or payable during the period in question) for services rendered to the bank by the director or company concerned, or paid (or payable) by the concerned director or company to the bank for services provided by the bank. The CBB may in its absolute discretion vary any such requirement (and /or restrictive effect thereof) in writing on a case-by-case basis.

Dividends, deposits, investment accounts and credit facilities are to be considered under item (b)(iv) of this definition.

For the purpose of the definition of "independent director":

- (a) Where the term "family" or "family member or related persons" is used reference is made to: spouse, father, mother, son(s) or daughter(s); and
- (b) Where the term "associate" is used reference is made to:
 - (i) Spouse, father, mother; son(s) or daughter(s); or
 - (ii) A person who is an employee or partner of the Director or of the firm represented or owned by the Director.

Any financial instrument giving right to or interests in real estate property other than owner occupied properties.

Intermediary

A person who in the course of any business or profession invites other persons to make offers or proposals or to take other steps with a view to entering into contracts of insurance, but not a person who publishes such invitations only on behalf of, or to the order of, some other person.

Intra-group outsourcing

Intra-group outsourcing is an arrangement in which one company within a group of companies provides services for another company within the same group that could also be or usually have been provided in-house.

Investment(s)

An investment is any holding by a bank of capital instruments issued by a third party that is not a subsidiary of the bank. Therefore holdings of subordinated debt eligible as regulatory capital issued by another financial institution would be regarded as an “investment”. In this case ‘holding’ means legal or beneficial ownership of capital instruments.

Investment analyst

An employee of an Islamic bank licensee who prepares investment research.

Investment firm licensee

A person licensed under Volume 4 of the CBB Rulebook.

Investment research

A document (other than a recommendation made to an individual customer), distributed outside an Islamic bank licensee, which contains one or more of the following:

- (a) The results of research into an individual financial instrument;
- (b) Analysis of factors likely to influence the future performance of an individual financial instrument or its issuer; and
- (c) Advice or recommendations based on those results or that analysis.

Islamic bank licensee

A bank licensed by CBB under Volume 2 of the CBB Rulebook, and generally operating according to Islamic finance principals (as opposed to operating in accordance with conventional finance principles).

Investment fund managers

A commercial organisation that manages investors' money for a fee.

Investment risk reserve

Investment risk reserve is the amount appropriated by the Islamic bank out of the income of investment account holders, after allocating the mudarib share, in order to cater against future losses for investment account holders.

Islamic wholesale banks

Islamic wholesale banks are defined as banks who undertake (at a minimum) the regulated Islamic banking services of accepting Shari'a money placements/deposits, and/or managing Shari'a profit sharing investment accounts, together with the activity of offering Shari'a financing contracts, subject to the restrictions on dealings with residents of Bahrain and/or in Bahraini Dinars, as defined in Rules LR-1.2.9 to 1.2.24.

Issued share capital

Total amount of shares that have been issued.

Istisna'a

A contract whereby the purchaser (al-mustasni') asks the seller (al-sani') to manufacture a specifically defined product (al-masnoo') using the seller's raw materials at a given price. The contractual agreement of istisna'a has a characteristic similar to that of Salam in that it provides for the sale of a product not available at the time of sale. It also has a characteristic similar to the ordinary sale in that the price may be paid on credit; however, unlike Salam, the price in the istisna'a contract is not paid when the deal is concluded. A third characteristic of the contractual agreement of istisna'a is similar to Ijarah (employment) in that labour is required in both.

J

Joint accounts

An agreement between two or more firms to share risk and financing responsibility in purchasing or underwriting securities, or an account owned jointly by two or more persons at a bank or brokerage house.

Licensed exchange(s)

“Licensed exchange” means an exchange licensed in respect of the operation of its market in and from the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Licensees

Any person licensed by the CBB under any of the Volumes of the CBB Rulebook.

Liquidation

The process of terminating a bank’s activities whereby all creditors are discharged either in full (a solvent liquidation), or in part (an insolvent liquidation) and any remaining funds are returned to the shareholders. This process normally takes place in accordance with the requirements of specific legislation in the country of incorporation. In Bahrain this includes the Bankruptcy and Preventative Settlements Act.

M

Malus

A malus is a feature of a remuneration arrangement that reduces the amount of a deferred bonus, so that the amount of the payout is less than the amount of the bonus award.

Managing Shari’a compliant financial instruments

Managing Shari’a compliant financial instruments means managing on a discretionary basis Shari’a compliant financial instruments on behalf of another person (see LR-1.3.27).

Managing Shari’a profit sharing investment accounts

Managing a Shari’a profit sharing investment account means managing an account, portfolio or fund, whereby a sum of money is placed with the service provider on terms that a return will be made according to an agreed Shari’a compliant profit-sharing arrangement, based either on a mudaraba or musharaka partnership (see LR-1.3.21).

Market

“Market” means a place at which, or a facility (whether electronic or otherwise) by means of which, offers or invitations to sell, purchase or exchange securities or futures contracts (including options and derivatives) regularly made on a centralised basis, being offers or invitations that are intended or may reasonably be expected to result, whether directly or indirectly, in the acceptance or making, respectively, of offers to sell, purchase or exchange securities or futures contracts (whether through that place or facility or otherwise).

Market risk

The risk of loss in on- or off-balance-sheet positions arising from movements in market prices. The risks subject to the market risk capital requirement of Module CA are:

- (a) The risks pertaining to benchmark profit rate related instruments & equities in the trading book; and
- (b) Foreign exchange, commodities and inventory risks throughout the bank.

Material Risk-Takers

The following table provides a non-exhaustive list of examples of key positions that should be considered as material risk-takers:

| High-level category | Suggested business lines |
|--|--|
| Heads of significant business lines and any individuals within their control who have a material impact of the bank’s risk profile | Fixed income Foreign exchange Commodities Securitisation Sales areas Investment banking Commercial banking Equities Structured finance Lending Trading areas |

Banks should consider how the examples in the above table apply in relation to their own organisational structure.

Memorandum of association

The Memorandum of Association is the first constitutional document of a company containing fundamentals such as the name, the company's objects and powers, and its original share capital.

Mind and Management

The presence of persons with executive authority to act on behalf of the bank and who have knowledge of the customers of the bank and their business, and the business of the bank where it acts as principal.

Minority interest

Has the same meaning as used in IFRS.

MLRO

Money Laundering Reporting Officer of each bank as more particularly described in Chapter FC 4.

Money Laundering

Means the activity constituting a criminal offence pursuant to Article 2 of the AML Decree Law No. 4 dated 29th January 2001 (see Appendix FC 1). More generally, money laundering refers to the process of hiding or disguising the true origin or ownership of the proceeds of criminal activities.

Money-market instruments

Those classes of instruments which are normally dealt in on the money market.

Mudaraba

A partnership in profit between capital and work. It may be conducted between investment account holders as providers of funds and the Islamic bank as a mudarib. The Islamic bank announces its willingness to accept the funds of investment amount holders, the sharing of profits being as agreed between the two parties, and the losses being borne by the provider of funds except if they were due to misconduct, negligence or violation of the conditions agreed upon by the Islamic bank. In the latter cases, such losses would be borne by the Islamic bank. A Mudaraba contract may also be concluded between the Islamic bank, as a provider of funds, on behalf of itself or on behalf of investment account holders, and business owners and other craftsmen, including farmers, traders etc. Mudaraba differs from what is known as speculation which includes an element of gambling in buying and selling transactions.

Mudaraba (Muqaradah) sukuk (bonds)

These are investment sukuk that represent ownership of units of equal value in the Mudaraba equity and are registered in the names of holders on the basis of undivided ownership of shares in the Mudaraba equity and its returns according to the percentage of ownership of share. The owners of such sukuk are the rabbul-mal.

Murabaha

Sale of goods with an agreed upon profit mark up on the cost. Murabaha sale is of two types. In the first type, the Islamic bank purchases the goods and makes them available for sale without any prior promise from a customer to purchase them. In the second type, the Islamic bank purchases the goods ordered by a customer from a third party and then sells these goods to the same customer. In the latter case, the Islamic bank purchases the goods only after a customer has made a promise to purchase them from the bank.

Musharaka

A form of partnership between the Islamic bank and its clients whereby each party contributes to the capital of partnership in equal or varying degrees to establish a new project or share in an existing one, and whereby each of the parties becomes an owner of the capital on a permanent or declining basis and shall have his due share of profits. However, losses are shared in proportion to the contributed capital. It is not permissible to stipulate otherwise.

Musharaka sukuk

These are investment sukuk that represent ownership of Musharaka equity. It does not differ from the Mudaraba sukuk except in the organization of the relationship between the party issuing such sukuk and holders of these sukuk, whereby the party issuing sukuk forms a committee from the holders of the sukuk who can be referred to in investment decisions.
